

REGISTER NOW FOR OUR FALL CLASSES

For those who aspire to continue developing as a credit professional, the CAP (Credit Administration Program) and ACAP (Advanced Credit Administration Program) were designed to expand your working knowledge of the various roles associated with business credit and accounts receivable.

CAP

BUSINESS CREDIT PRINCIPLES with James A. McIntyre, CCE

James A. McIntyre

Business Credit Principles is part of a three-course program towards the Credit Business Associate (CBA). Successful completion of each class is needed to sit for the CBA exam.

Date: Tuesdays, September 8 - November 3, 2009

Time: 4 - 8 p.m.

Location: Forius Business Credit Resources
1201 Marquette Ave. Suite 400
Minneapolis, MN 55403

Price: Members: $500 (does not include textbooks)
Non-members: $600 (does not include textbooks)

Required textbook: Principles of Business Credit, 5th edition.
Textbook can be found at www.nacm.org in the bookstore.

Email Lisa to hold a spot
lgrabau@forius.com

ACAP

BUSINESS LAW with James A. McIntyre, CCE

Business Law is part of a three-course program toward the Credit Business Fellow (CBF). Successful completion of each class, in addition to other requirements, is needed to sit for the CBF exam.

Date: Mondays, September 14 - November 2, 2009

Time: 4 - 8 p.m.

Location: Forius Business Credit Resources
1201 Marquette Ave. Suite 400
Minneapolis, MN 55403

Price: Members: $500 (does not include textbooks)
Non-members $600 (does not include textbooks)

Required textbook: Business Law Today 8th edition AND Study Guide by Miller & Jenz.
Textbook can be found at www.nacm.org in the bookstore.

Have any questions regarding credentials and NACM's CAP or ACAP program?
Please contact Lisa Grabau at (612) 341-9638.